BENEFITS

Engaging, Interactive & Virtual

EQ Connections™ was designed to help facilitate engaging and interactive sessions both virtually and in-person. The content can support coaching and training using both the EQ-i 2.0® Leadership and Workplace reports through a flexible approach based on your audience.

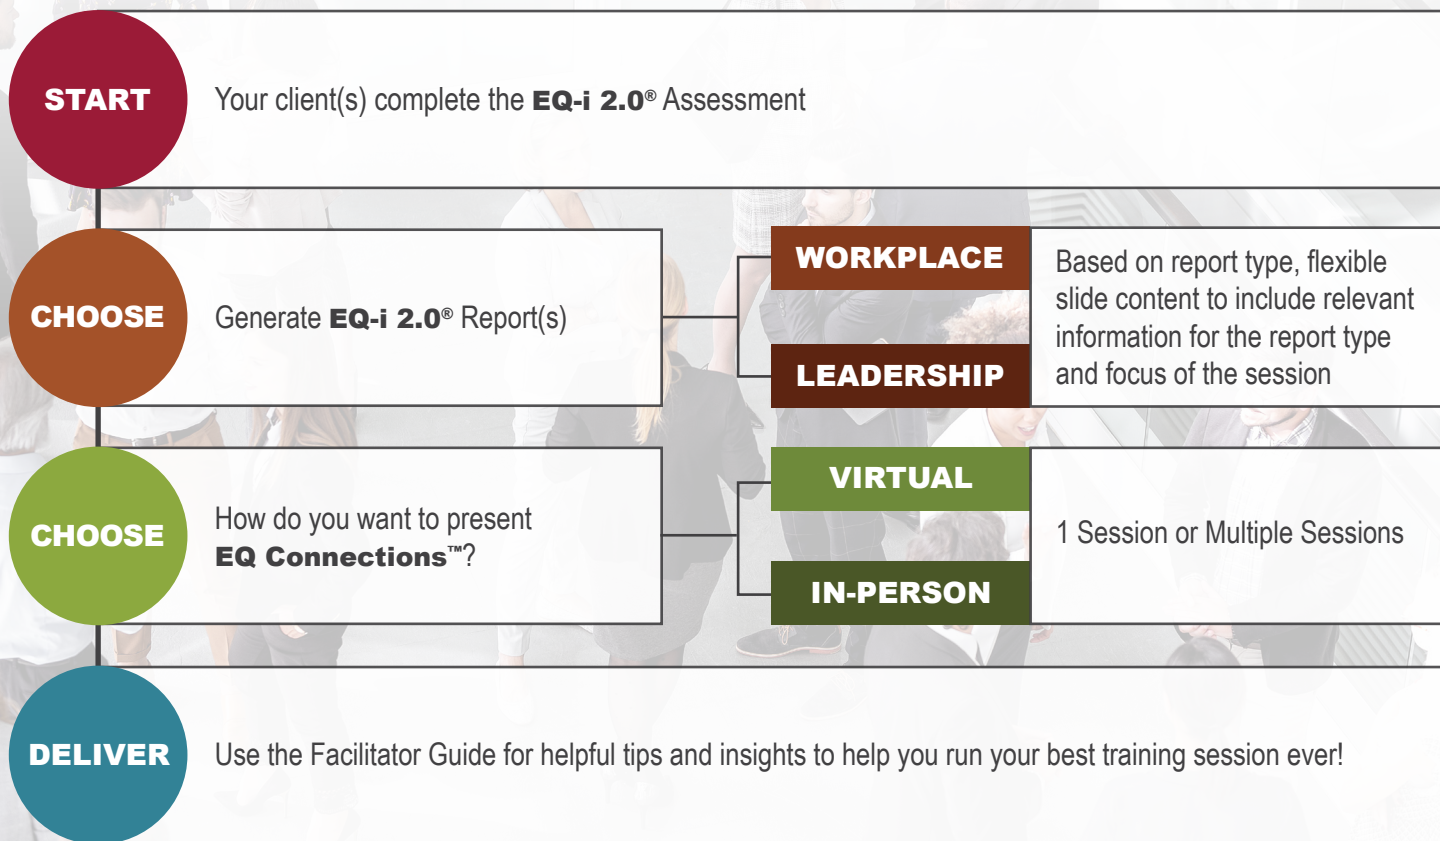

Trusted Content, Curated to Coach

Designed to align with the trusted EQ-i 2.0® assessment; modules are differentiated by the color of the composite they relate to in the model and follow a consistent flow and structure to maintain cohesion. The content of this tool is a marriage of the authors' coaching expertise and MHS R&D, ensuring that the content you present is evidence-based, reliable and relevant.

Buy Today, Use Tomorrow
